

1. Counselor Handbooks – 3 Parts
2. Go through Part 3 – conflict resolution
3. Some things to remember:
  - a) Speak well of others
  - b) Know your students' names
  - c) Be...Encouraging
  - d) Energetic
  - e) Fun
  - f) Patient
  - g) Make all students feel important
  - h) Clear Expectations
  - i) Be a counselor to all of your students
  - j) All students are to be valued and treated with kindness
4. Mega Days calendar and expectations for what to do during each activity
5. Monday – Mega Days tshirt (plus another shirt to wear when we leave the building)
Tuesday – twin day
Wednesday – wacky Wednesday
Thursday – USA Day
Friday – summer youth group “more” tshirt (but have your mega days tshirt ready because we will use them for the group picture and counseling group pics on Friday morning)
6. Skit night
7. 57 campers. 13 counselors. 2 DA's. 1 photographer. Adults going with us: Emily Burrow, Brandy LaPaglia, Laura Walker, Brandon Fergusson, Brianne Grove, Jenni Christian, Natalie Christian. And interns: Samantha Pote, Josh Turner
8. Cards for students – write each of your students. WRITE LEGIBLY. This letter is to help your campers feel excited about camp, and it's to help your camper's parents feel good about their child coming to camp.

Dear _____,

I am so excited you are coming to Mega Days. My name is Jethro and I will be one of your counselors at camp. My co-counselor's name is Paco. It's going to be a great week and we will have so much fun. Get excited! See you Monday.

- Jethro Jones